About Goa Villa

LT409 is immersed in shades of black and grey that rise out of the greenery of Siolim, Goa. A geometrically pleasing structure, this villa is all about bold lines, strong colours, soft lighting, and a modern aesthetic. The four-bedroom house looks like it has been built around the pool that has a unique and distinct shape it. All aspects of the house are custom-made to evoke feelings and moods of the moon, especially the double-height living room which boasts a chandelier that comprises 46 globes of different sizes, suspended from the ceiling at different heights to give a sense of lightness to the room. The enchanting space has several walkways and bridges, and each bedroom and bathroom has been tastefully designed. The master bedroom holds a surprise, a private staircase that connects the room to a private sit-out. The house is engulfed with natural light and the open kitchen design ensures every part of the house spills over to the next seamlessly. The living space opens to a beautifully appointed bar room that leads to an outdoor sitting space by the pool. Each area and room of the LT409 offers a sense of excitement and ensures your stay is never dull or boring.
